

PodC – Podcast Summary

Episode Summary

My Unsung Hero tells the stories of people whose kindness left a lasting impression on someone else. Today's story comes from Connie Sherburn. In 2020 Sherburn's husband of 31 years Peter died in a crash while piloting their small plane. The next morning she went to their insurance company to transfer his truck's insurance into her name. "Because she said it was such force, it really, really just made sense to me," she says. "I decided to go back after two or three years to let her know what an impression she'd left on me" "I just wanted to tell her what an impact she'd made on me," he says. Kind of Sherburn lives in Escondido, California. "It was such a little thing for this woman just to say that to me, but she didn't realize what a huge thing it was going to be to help me through all this," she says. You can find more stories of unsung heroes and learn how to submit your own at hiddenbrain.org.

Topic 1: Unsung / Sherburn

0.0s → 19.98s

My Unsung Hero tells the stories of people whose kindness left a lasting impression on someone else. Today's story comes from Connie Sherburn. In 2020 Sherburn's husband of 31 years

Topic 2: Insurance

19.98s → 39.96s

The office was staffed by just one person. The next morning she went to their insurance company to transfer his truck's insurance into her name.

Topic 3: So I Knocked On The Door

39.96s → 59.94s

"I knocked on the door and she let me in and it didn't take her but a few minutes to take care of why I was there," he said. "And then when

Topic 4: And She Said, Okay, So Now

59.94s → 79.92s

"I thought, right, let them because I was not the type of person that would let them," she says.

Topic 5: Lot

79.92s → 99.9s

"It really, really just made sense to me. So I went home and right away I needed help doing a lot of stuff like I use firewood to heat my house and my

Topic 6: Insurance / Years

99.9s → 119.88s

"I would have never, never reached out to all these people that helped. One of the neighbors actually cooked for me for four years dinners and her husband delivered the dinners to me,"

Topic 7: Years

119.88s → 139.86s

"I kept hearing her voice, you know, let them. I decided to go back after two or three years to let her know what an impression she'd left on me"

Topic 8: Unsung / Sherburn

139.86s → 159.83999999999997s

Kind of Sherburn lives in Escondito, California. "It was such a little thing for this woman just to say that to me, but she didn't realize what a huge